The 1957 football season during which Talmage won 7 while losing only one game was the most successful the Bulldogs have had since the fall of 1946. The Purple and White gridders collected a total of 247 points to 91 for their opponets. The Lincoln Journal listed Talmage in third place in its final top-ten ratings. In the Omaha World Herald we were rated 6 in Class B and 8 in Class A. Harlan Oestmann did a very successful job of coaching the Talmage Bulldogs during his first year of coaching.

Juniors

On September 2, 1957, eleven juniors entered T.H.S. Benny Burns, who moved from Dunbar, is a new member of our class.

The class officers this year are Benny Burns, President; Mary Jane Folkerts, Vice President; Anita Kreimer, Secretary; and Jack Hill and Anita Kreimer, Student Council.

Our class funds were rather low at the beginning of the year, so we held a car wash on September 14th; the results very satisfactory but a tired bunch of kids.

We won third prize on our float, "They're in the Jailhouse Now," in the Purple and White Day parade. Jean Oltman and Ben Burns were chosen candidates for King and Queen of Purple and White Day.

On March 4th Mr. Maurer was disappointed because he wasn't asked to join us on our annual clash day. All the girls wore colors that clashed, a tennis shoe and a street shoe, and one earring.

The Junior Class Play, "My Cousin From Texas," was presented April 25. Our two negros, Eshew and Peaceful, played by Mary Jane and Ben stole the show. The other characters came in for their share of the glory.

On May 3rd we invited the Seniors on a Hawaiian Cruise. The Banquet-Prom was highlighted by the "hula" performed by Freshmen girls.

Time moves on and we are now taking the last step in our high school and becoming mighty seniors. Good Luck to the Class of 58 in all that you pursue.

Class History

In the fall of 1954 sixteen bullpuppies entered the Talmage kennel. We were Richard Peters, Allan Ruhge, Tom Smith, Rosella Snyder, Robert Walters, Carl Ward, Virginia Winkelhake, Max Meyer, Ronnie Keller, Dale Horstman, Delores Frerichs, Duane Damme, Deanne Folkerts, David Cowell, Arthur Bradley, and Dennis Aust.

The Bullpuppies, as we were tagged by the Bulldogs, had a rough time getting accustomed to the rules set up by the kennel.

We pups elected Richard Peters as President, Dennis Aust as Vice President, and Max Meyer served as Sec.–Treas. Mr. Wolever was our pointer. Deanne Folkerts and Rich Peters were chosen as puppy candidates for Purple and White Day. Later on in the fall we puppies presented our registration papers (class banner) to the old dogs for their approval. We were now registered members of the kennel.

In the fall of 1955 a stray St. Bernard, Keith Volkmer, from up north invaded our pound for a year.

Our officers were Pres. Rich Peters, Vice-Pres. Max Meyer, Sec.–Treas. Tom Smith. We spent our Sophomore year gobbling up English, Algebra, Science, Geography, Voc. Ag., and Home Ec., while we kept a watchful eye on the bulldogs. We were now ready to enter our third year of training.

During this year two of our pups were claimed from our kennel to begin training in another kennel. They were Tommy Smith and Dennis Aust. Two others, Arthur Bradley and Carl Ward, were of the roving kind and answered Uncle Sam's whistle. About this time the Master took into his private keeping Bobby Walters.

The officers elected to lead the pack were Rich Peters–Pres, Max Meyer–Vice President, and David Cowell was Sec.–Treas. The condidates for Purple and White Day this year were Deanne Folkerts and Dennis Aust.

In our junior year the nearly grown Bulldogs held a Christmas Ball. Everyone enjoyed the evening while we lapped the punch and munched the yummies. We pups put on our first dog show (Junior Class Play – "The Night Was Dark") Next we entertained our superiors and trainers at a banquet in the Gay 90 mood.

The past year we had been fed grow-pup and by our Senior year we were grown Bulldogs. The officers elected to lead us through the last lap were Dave Cowell – President, Max Meyer – Vice President, and Deanne Folkerts – Sec.-Treas.

Max Meyer and Virginia Winkelhake reigned as King and Queen of Purple and White Day. Other royalty of the year were Rich Peters and Deanne Folkerts who reigned at the Sweetheart Ball.

For our final dog show (Senior Class play) we presented "It's A Girl". Then it was our turn to be shown so we boarded a train for Chicago on an Educational Tour. We must not forget the day the dogs ran away to Omaha for Sneak Day either.

Our exciting Senior year was nearing its end. Everyone had worked hard learning the paths of knowledge. Finally, we had the pleasure of walking up the aisle to receive our diplomas, which means we are ready to go out into the world to seek new knowledge.
